

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives take tremendous pleasure in acknowledging milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State young women who have admirably dedicated themselves to exceptional participation in the Girl Scouts of America program with its emphasis on maturation and growth as a person, citizen, and leader; and

Whereas, Cassondra Wiseman of Girl Scout Troop 163 has earned the highest achievement award in Girl Scouting, the Gold Award, which will be presented to her on Sunday, March 6, 2005, at Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence; and

Whereas, Cassondra fulfilled all of the diverse requirements for her Gold Award, including devoting herself to the many hours necessary to garner four Interest Project Patches; twenty-five badges, patches and/or skill awards; the Career Exploration Pin; and a Girl Scout Leadership Award; and

Whereas, Cassondra also designed a self-development plan that requires assessment of her ability to interact with others and prioritize values, participation for a minimum of fifteen hours in a community service project, and development of a plan to promote Girl Scouting; and

Whereas, Cassondra spent a minimum of fifty hours planning and implementing a Girl Scout Gold Award Project that had a positive and lasting impact on the community and that consisted of a city-wide collection of more than eighty pounds of pop tabs for Ronald McDonald House; and

Whereas, Cassondra earned the Girl Scout Silver Award prior to reaching the prestigious Gold Award level of achievement; and

Whereas, officially designated in 1980 as the highest award in Girl Scouting, the Gold Award is attained by only three thousand Girl Scouts annually:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to salute Girl Scout Cassondra Wiseman and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon completing the stringent requirements for a Girl Scout Gold Award and our best wishes for continued success and achievement in life for many, many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Girl Scout Gold Award recipient Cassondra Wiseman, daughter of Zane and Eileen Wiseman of Smithville, Missouri.
